Foreword

Hi, kids! I'm your 1957 SPARTAN. I'm sure you will all know some facet of my character. Just turn my pages, and if the story I tell brings back some memories of your 1957 school days, the staff which created me will not consider their time wasted.

Flip through my pages until you find yourself and your classmates. I have a part of your 1956-57 SHS days somewhere inside my cover, so go through until you find it.

Good luck and good reading.

Dear Mr. Mikkelsen,

The complete sincerity, thorough cooperation, and deep understanding shown toward us, the students of Spearfish High School, are characteristics of yours that we will remember as we recall our high school days. The many hours of thoughtful guidance you have given us are greatly appreciated. Your knowledge of the problems of the high school students, combined with your ability to solve them, certainly have helped to make our high school years more enjoyable.

In appreciation of these traits, to you, Superintendent E. C. Mikkelsen, the SPARTAN staff dedicates this 1957 SPARTAN.

The SPARTAN Staff

LOOKOUT Editor Jim McCleave, Adviser Georgia Hanson, and Assistant Editor Martha Clark are pictured here glancing over a newly completed LOOKOUT.

Bosses Over People Plus Machines Equals Publication

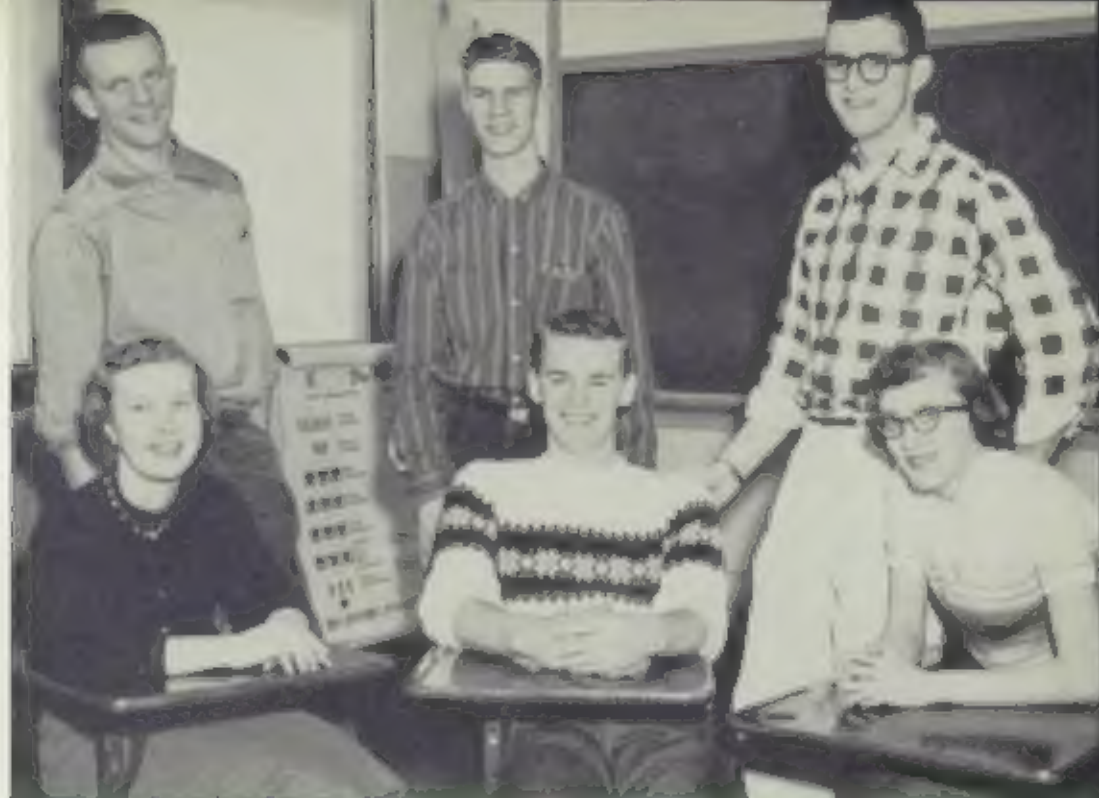

Shown below with the mimeograph machine are LOOKOUT staffers Mary Craig, Barbara Soliday, and LaVon Cundy.

The LOOKOUT typists for the year were Lynn Anthony, Mary Crawford, and Joan Wolf.

The LOOKOUT art staff: Morris Mikkelsen, Jerry Ainsworth, and Gary Miller.

The "100 Club" is composed of those journalism students who have 100 inches or more published in the LOOKOUT. Shown above are seniors Karen Crowner, Ken Anderson, Mary DeHaai, Roger Bell, Jim McCleave, and Tom Campbell, last year's "100 Club" members.

LOOKOUT Production Demands Many Skills

Although the SHS journalism class is designed primarily to give students basic training in journalism, it also produces the LOOKOUT, a bi-weekly school paper. The paper brings school news and editorials to the students, and is completely produced by the students in the journalism class. In addition to the regular jobs at which members of the class are pictured, every member of the class is a reporter.

Members of the LOOKOUT business staff are Roger Dingeman, Bonnie Steele, Carla Curnow, and Marie Miller.

The LOOKOUT sports staff in 1957 was composed of Jim Matson and Jerry Rygg, shown with copyreader Bill McGulgan.

The Lettermen's Club, which consists of 26 members this year, is composed of athletes who have earned one or more letters in "A" sports. This honorary organization is sponsored by the SHS coaches. Shown above are: BACK ROW: LeRoy Draine, Jim Anderson, Jim Matson, Gerald McInerney, Jerry Ainsworth, Charles Matson, John Kinyon, Richard Dodd, Larry Roberts. SECOND ROW: Carroll Hurd, Joe Termes, Roger Bell, Tom Campbell, Bob Butterfield, Richard White, Larry Nelson. Cheerleaders Add Spark to Games and Rallies

Three seniors and two sophomores representing Spearfish High School attended a cheerleading clinic on the campus of Chadron State Teachers College, Chadron, Nebraska. Many new yells were introduced and these gained much success at home.

Other trips taken by the cheerleaders were to Lemmon, McLaughlin, and Pierre.

During football season the cheerleaders wore gray sweaters and maroon slacks.

Martha Clark, crowned queen for 1956-57, is seated in the center. Behind her are the members of the Homecoming Court. To her right is the vice president, and to her left is the president. The group is standing on a stage under a striped canopy.

Martha Clark Reigns as SHS Queen

Martha Clark was crowned queen for 1956-57 on October 4, 1956, after Tom Crumley, student body vice president, announced the results of the election. Martha Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ainsworth, football captain, presided over the ceremony. The coronation took place at the SHS gymnasium.

Shown seated above are student council advisor, Barbara Anderson, Karen Peterson, Betty Miller, Martha Terry, Tom Campbell, and Tom Matthews. Behind them are the council members, standing, Tom Kahan, Dick Jones, Robert Foster, Betty Wood, Dave Whitlock, Dick Termes, Larry Bell, LaVon Cundy, Nancy Wyne, and Jimmy Whitlock.

Council Plans Activities for Students

Organized primarily to give the student experience in the responsibilities of government, the Clark County Student Council also entertains their duties. The student council presents the student's viewpoint to the faculty and staff. This year they sponsored several school parties, along with their usual winter and spring activities and projects.

Clark, Campbell Head Student Council

After a spirited but hectic campaign, Martha Clark was elected student body president, while runner-up Tom Campbell became vice-president. These officers also headed the student council in the same capacity, aided by secretary-treasurer LaVon Cundy.

The Thespian society is an honorary organization of dramatic students. To be in the Thespian troupe at J.H.S., a student must have earned ten or more points in dramatics; while understudies are those with less than ten points. Shown above are the Thespians and understudies.

Back row: Mrs. Dr. B. McLaughlin, Larry Nelson, Morris Mikkelsen, James McCleave, Mike Butterfield, Larry Trar, Steve Jones, Jerry Kinsworth, Gerald Trainers, Roger Dargatzis, Gary Miller, David Whitlock, John Haydon, Jack Bellis, Fred Engel, Adviser Clarence Warner.

Girls Athletic Association

The Girls Athletic Association started the year by presenting a food project. For their Christmas project this year they presented a basket of food to a needy family. They held their annual slumber party with the GAA on the 17th. A number of girls participated in the day. The proceeds given by the Girls Athletic Association were used for the needy family. The slumber party was held in the park at the close of the year.

Future Homemakers of America

The 44 members of the Future Homemakers of America celebrated their busy year by winning second prize in a float in the beauty division of the Senior Day parade. Special projects were a baked food sale, making a float for the parade, and collecting clothes for needy families. The group also participated in a project on proper nutrition and the Mid-America contest. The Future Homemakers of America group also participated in the slumber party with the GAA. The year was concluded with the preparing and serving of the Senior Tea.

Future Teachers of America

Three seniors, four juniors, and five sophomores composed the Future Teachers of America for the past year. Working for grade school teachers, typing, and recording the circulation of books were the most important activities of the teachers. A formal initiation and noon luncheon meetings were held. "The Story of All Time", a book written by the group, was given for the January 17 pep meeting. Frances Repass is adviser for the group.

SHS Sends Group to Student Congress

The Black Hills Student Congress is held annually at Lead, South Dakota. It is a legislative body patterned after the United States Congress. This year's group consisted of ten students selected from Northern Black Hills towns. The group, which met in Lead, South Dakota, were, seated: Karen Jensen, Lynn McLean, LaVon Cundy, and Jay McVey standing: Morris Mikkelsen, Art Mikkelsen, and Wayne Wendel. Campbell was elected vice-president of the Senate.

Local Declamation Winners Compete At District

Jay McVey, in the dramatic division, Harriet Farrell in humorous, Ruth Zitting, poetry, and Morris Mikkelsen, oratory, were members of the declamation squad who competed at the district meet. They won the right to attend the district by winning the local meet.

Among the 248 highlights for the class of 1957 were their participation, which provided a wonderful evening "Jitterwater" for the classes of 1956 and 1957. The seniors proved themselves quite dramatic, as they presented "The Night of January 16th" for their senior play, and ended their stage career by presenting the first Shakespearean drama ever to be produced in SHS, "The Merchant of Venice."

The seniors were also very active in sports, music, and forensics, ending their high school years with many individual and collective SHS highlights.

of the slaving & they long times at the
 the first summer.
 the world we forget the time we
 the head - grow
 place, rich, etc.
 men, grand, amazing
 even if we
 at the top, but, there but, if we don't
 to the - for which we do.

Autographs

Dear Mother,
 I was a sweet girl,
 that I enjoyed going with very much, and wish I would have the chance to do so again.

Love,

R. D. Jones

Carolyn, Remember all of the fun we had in study hall last year.
Good luck to a good kid
Karen.

Dear Carolyn,

The book made
it thru our Jr. year,
here's hope we make
it thru our Sr. year.
Don't forget the fun
we had working on the prom. Good luck
to a sweet gal.
Grace

Hi Carolyn,
I hope you're doing well. I miss you and all the fun we had in study hall. Good luck
in your classes.
Love,
Karen

Hi Carolyn,
Although we were
apart much, together
we always thought you were a nice kid.
Be good but still
have fun.

Best of luck
Steven

Dear Susie, Remembers all have the fun we have had together at the parks, games, and
this summer.
Love Pat.
Keep your good looks and take it easy on the boys & Bottle.

He never forget our good working times this summer, pals, trying to ditch those creeps out. It was all fun through. Is a sweet and sweet gal!! As ever
Pat

Dear Carolyn
Remembering the summer nights and sunny things up, the best of K.
